BOND REFUND PROCEDURE:

BONDED MEMBERS WHO RESIGN FROM THE CLUB MAY REQUEST A REFUND OF THEIR BOND FEE.

The Wedgewood by-laws state that bonds may be refunded, minus any unpaid fees, after the retired bonds are resold to new applicants entering membership. The acceptance of new members generally occurs during the spring/early summer and after the due date for payment of membership dues.

Assuming that demand for membership is equal to (or greater than) the number of resignations in any given year, you may expect a refund during the months of May or June. If the demand for membership is insufficient, refunds will be processed ASAP in order of receipt.

BOND REDEMPTION PROCEDURE:

1. You resign from Wedgewood Swim Club.
2. For those members that have a physical Bond Certificate (issued prior to 2002); return the Bond Certificate with this signed form.
3. You, your heirs and assigns waive any future claim to membership or refund by signing this form.
